EXPLANATION – PATHFINDER PLEDGE

By the grace of God
Only as we rely on God to help us can we do His will.

I will be pure

I will be kind
I will be considerate and kind, not only to my fellow man, but also to all of God’s creation.

I will be true
I will be honest and upright in study, work and play and can always be counted upon to do my very best.

Keep a song in my heart
Go on God’s errands

EXPLANATION – PATHFINDER LAW

Keep the Morning Watch.
I will have prayer and personal bible study each day.

Do my honest part.
By the power of God I will help others, and do my duty and my honest share, wherever I may be.

Care for my body
I will be temperate in all things and strive to reach a higher standard of physical fitness.

Keep a level eye.
I will not lie, cheat or deceive, and will despise dirty talk or evil thinking.

Be courteous and obedient.
I will be kind and thoughtful of others, reflecting the love of Jesus in all my association with others.

Walk softly in the sanctuary.
In any devotional exercise I will be quiet, careful and reverent.

Keep a song in my heart

SPIRITUAL DISCOVERY

The purpose of this section is to renew and develop the teenagers’ confidence in the Bible as the Word of God, and to help them discover a saving relationship in Jesus, leading to a decision of commitment and baptism.
1. Discover in group discussion:

You will need a BIBLE for this requirement.

a. What Christianity is:

b. What are the marks of a true disciple: (Matthew 6:19-34; Luke 14:26-33):

c. The forces involved in becoming a Christian:
1b. Humpty Dumpty Revisited

Humpty Dumpty sat on the wall
Humpty Dumpty had a great fall
All the King's horses and all the King's men
Couldn't put Humpty together again

But soon the King himself heard of Humpty's fate. And he was deeply disturbed. So, setting aside his royal finery, disguised as a common peasant, the King slipped unnoticed through the majestic palace gates and into the rough-and-tumble street life of his kingdom.

The King meandered through the back streets and alleys in search of Humpty. After several days and nights the persistent monarch found him. Humpty's shattered body was scattered over a ten-foot circle amidst the broken glass and flattened beer cans of a back alley.

Though exhausted from his searching, the King was overjoyed at the sight of Humpty. He ran to his side and cried, "Humpty! It is I-your King! I have powers greater than those of my horses and men who failed to put you together again. Be at peace. I am here to help!"

"Leave me alone," Humpty's mouth retorted. "I've gotten used to this new way of life. I kind of like it now."

"But..." was all the King could get out before Humpty continued.

"I tell you, I'm fine. I like it here. That trash can over there...the way the sun sparkles on the broken glass. This must be the garden spot of the world!"

The King tried again. "I assure you my kingdom has much more to offer than this back alley - there are green mountains, rolling surf, exciting cities..."

But Humpty would hear none of it. And the saddened King returned to the palace. A week later one of Humpty's eyes rolled skyward only to see once again the concerned face of the King standing over his fractured pieces.

"I've come to help," firmly stated the King.

"Look, leave me alone, will you?" said Humpty. "I've just seen my psychiatrist, and he assures me that I'm doing a fine job of coping with my environment as it is. You're a cop-out. A man has to deal with life as it comes. I'm a realist."

"But wouldn't you rather walk?" asked the King.

"Look," Humpty's mouth replied, "once I get up and start walking I'll have to stay up and keep walking. At this point in my life I'm not ready to make a commitment like that. So, if you'll excuse me - you're blocking my sun."

Reluctantly the King turned once again and walked through the streets of his kingdom back to the palace.

It was over a year before the King ventured to return to Humpty's side. But, sure enough, one bright morning one of Humpty's ears perked up at the sure, steady strides of the King. This time he was ready. Humpty's eye turned toward the tall figure just as his mouth managed the words, "My King!"

Immediately the King fell to his knees on the glass-covered pavement. His strong, knowing hands gently began to piece together Humpty's fragments. After some time, his work completed, the King rose to full height, pulling up with him the figure of a strong young man.

The two walked throughout the kingdom. Together they stood atop lush green mountains. They ran together along deserted beaches. They laughed and joked together as they strolled the gleaming cities of the King's domain. This went on forever. And to the depth, breadth, and height of their friendship there was no end.

Once while walking together down the sidewalk in one of the King's cities, Humpty overheard a remark that made his heart leap with both the joy of his new life and the bitter memory of the back alley. Someone said, "Say, who are those two men?"

Another replied, "Why, the one on the left is old Humpty Dumpty. I don't know the one on the right - but they sure look like brothers!" -Vic Pentz

2. Define what Christianity is, and what it offers you personally.
God Leads a Pretty Sheltered Life (Anonymous)

At the end of time, billions of people were scattered on a great plain before God's throne. Some of the groups near the front talked heatedly - not with cringing shame, but with belligerence.

"How can God judge us? How can He know about suffering?" snapped a joking brunette. She jerked back a sleeve to reveal a tattooed number from a Nazi concentration camp. "We endured terror, beatings, torture, death!"

In another group, a black man lowered his collar. "What about this?" he demanded, showing an ugly rope burn. "Lynched for no crime but being black! We have suffocated in slave ships, been wrenched from loved ones, toiled till only death gave release."

Far out across the plain were hundreds of such groups. Each had a complaint against God for the evil and suffering He permitted in His world. How lucky God was to live in heaven where all was sweetness and light, where there was no weeping, no fear, no hunger, no hatred. Indeed, what did God know about what man had been forced to endure in this world? "After all, God leads a pretty sheltered life," they said.

So each group sent out a leader, chosen because he had suffered the most. There was a Jewish person, a black person, an untouchable from India, an illegitimate, a person from Hiroshima, and one from a Siberian slave camp. In the center of the plain they consulted with each other. At last they were ready to present their case. It was rather simple: Before God would be qualified to be their judge; He must endure what they had endured. Their decision was that God "should be sentenced to live on earth-as a man!" But, because He was God, they set certain safeguards to be sure He could not use His divine powers to help Himself.

Let Him be born a Jew.
Let the legitimacy of His birth be doubted, so that none will know who His father really is.

Let Him champion a cause so just, but so radical, that it brings down upon Him the hate, condemnation, and elimination efforts of every major traditional and established religious authority.

Let Him try to describe what no man has ever seen, tasted, heard, or smelled – let Him try to communicate God to men.

Let Him be betrayed by His dearest friends.

Let Him be indicted on false charges, tried before a prejudiced jury, and convicted by a cowardly judge.

Let Him see what it is to be terribly alone and completely abandoned by every living thing. Let Him be tortured, and let Him die! Let Him die the most humiliating death - with common thieves.

As each leader announced his portion of the sentence, loud mummers of approval went up from the great throng of people. When the last had finished pronouncing sentence, there was a long silence. No one uttered another word. No one moved. For suddenly all knew...God had already served His sentence.
After reading the short story "God Leads A Pretty Sheltered Life,"

3. Record your conclusion below on how much God really cares for us and is prepared to give all to save us.

2. Participate in a Bible marking programme on the inspiration of the Bible.

Objective:
To understand, aided by a Bible marking program, God's gift of Scripture through the process called Revelation/Inspiration.
To be able to share the Word of God with persons seeking truth.

2a. Invite the Church Pastor, Elder or someone else capable of sharing with the class how he marks his Bible. After a brief discussion he can then demonstrate how he proves the Bible true and lead out in the marking of 7 - 10 key texts.

2b. Discuss with your class the meaning of Revelation/Inspiration. You may wish to use 1 Corinthians 2, in a recent translation. Notice, for instance, the way the Revised Standard Version expresses:

Our Human Need: Paul says that none of the rulers of this age understand "the secret and hidden wisdom of God," vs. 6-8.

God's Gift of Revelation: "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him, God has revealed to us through the Spirit," vs. 9-10.

God's Help with the Communication of Truth: "And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who possess the Spirit," vs. 13. This part of the process we often call "Inspiration."

God's Help with the Understanding of Truth: "So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God... The unspiritual man does not receive the gifts of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned." vs. 11-14.

Showing, telling, understanding are three important steps in the process by which God meets our need for saving truth. Now let us ask some more vital questions of Scripture.

Why are the truths of the Bible written? See John 20:30-31, Romans 15:4, 2 Timothy 3:16-17.
2c. Select seven or more Bible texts that help you understand the divine origin and purpose of the Bible.

<table>

<tr>

</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

When the class members have all shared their chosen texts, and these have been evaluated by the group, each person can then mark the texts in his/her own Bible, using a chain-reference system.

Chain Reference Method
On a spare page in the back of your Bible you would place a list of the topics you wish to mark.

Alongside each topic, list the first reference with a code for that subject. The code could be the first letter of the title. E.g. Second Coming – SC

When you have looked up the first reference, you will write the next reference with its code either in the margin near the text or after the text.

You will continue to look up the next text and write the following reference with its code until the study is finished.

After the last text you will write the code and the letter “F” to indicate the finish of the subject.

Advantages
- You could have a study on a subject with no warning.
- It helps you become familiar with your Bible.
- Gives you a set order to follow.
- Printed sheets can be obtained for this type of marking.

Disadvantages
- You cannot change the order of your study.
- If you lose your place you would need some other reference to know where to go next, or else start again.
- Not suitable for further study.
- If glued in references from printed sheets are used, they often fall out.

You will need your BIBLE to show evidence of completing the above.
3. Enrol at least three people in a Bible correspondence course / VBS, or invite at least three people (non-members) to your Sabbath School Class.

FRIENDSHIP DEVELOPMENT

The purpose of this section is to provide opportunity for the Pathfinder to experience the joy and happiness of being with others.
1. In group discussion and by personal inquiry, examine your attitudes to two of the following topics:

   A. Self-confidence (Additional resources in Explorer class under Health and Fitness)
   B. Friendship
   C. The Social Graces
   D. Will Power

A. SELF CONFIDENCE

Peter was 16 years old and belonged to a nature club. He was asked by the leader to get up in front of the group and talk for "five minutes" about "horses," one of his favourite interests. He pondered all the week what he should say. After all, he knew an awful lot about horses and had agreed to give the talk. As the week went by, however, he became more and more frightened. What would he say? How would he say it? Above all, what would they think about what he would say? Perhaps they knew a lot more about horses than he did.

The doubts about his ability to stand up in front of the group became overwhelming and the night before he became so scared, that he phoned to say he wasn't well and wouldn't be able to come.

You will be able to think of lots of situations in which young people would like to do something but feel for some reason, terribly inadequate and are unable to begin.

B. FRIENDSHIP

Objective:
To help the Rangers become aware of the dynamics of friendship.

Why We Need Friends
1. We cannot develop our talents alone.
2. We cannot know how others feel and what they need without friends to tell us.
3. We need friends so that we can enjoy good times - new experiences and places, by sharing our happiness. i.e. our happiness is multiplied when shared with someone else.
4. We need someone to share problems with. (Remember sharing goes both ways)
5. Friends expand our interests and ideas.
6. Friends help us overcome our faults.
7. Friendship may not lead to marriage; but marriage without friendship in the fullest sense, is not true marriage.

Make a list of the characteristics you think are:

Bible Principles Relating to Friendship

| Love at all times | Proverbs 17: 17 |
| Shows friendship  | Proverbs 18:24a |
| Faithful in wounding | Proverbs 27:6 |
| Gives good advice | Proverbs 27:9  |
| Should show pity and be kind | Job 6:14 |
| Sticks closer than your brother | Proverbs 18:24b |

What do you think are the most important conditions for a real friendship?

..................................................................................................................................................................................
One of the factors that erodes self-concept is the inability of some people to make and keep friends. The following activities are designed to help the teen expand his repertoire of skills in building and enhancing relationships with his peers.

1. Discuss methods you use to make friends?

2. Draw a picture of a friend. Underneath the picture ask them to write a paragraph beginning with "A friend is ..."
3. Discuss the following questions: Do you have a best friend? Do you like to do the same things? Did you ever want to do something that he/she didn't want to do? What happened? Are you still friends?

................................................................................................................................................
................................................................................................................................................
................................................................................................................................................

C. THE SOCIAL GRACES

Objective:
To create an awareness of the affect that etiquette and courtesy have on interpersonal relationships

Etiquette and courtesy are things that seem to be out of fashion as we enter the twenty-first century. While no one wants to go back to the exaggerated customs and manners (to say nothing of the prudery) of the "olden days," there is much truth in the old saying, "Manners make the man." And manners also make a lady out of a girl or a woman.

Etiquette is courtesy and good manners as accepted in a given society. It is important to remember that what is acceptable in one society is completely unacceptable in another. For example, in some ethnic groups, a hearty belch at the end of a meal is an indication that the meal has been enjoyed, and the hostess expects this as a token of satisfaction and a meal well appreciated. In other societies, such behaviour is quite unacceptable and is regarded as the height of vulgarity.

Not only does etiquette differ from ethnic group to ethnic group, but from time to time. There was a time when, in our society, it was etiquette for a younger lady to courtsey to an older lady or one of superior social level. However, we live today in a rather more classless society, and ladies curtsey only to royalty or their vice-regal representatives, as a general rule.

It is a sad thing that good manners are ignored by so many today, for etiquette is simple courtesy and good manners in action, in a way acceptable to the society in which we find ourselves.

The Christian will always try to show consideration for others. The basis for his or her behavior will always be the Golden Rule: "And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise" (Luke 6:31).

- CHARACTER is the foundation...
- COURTESY and unselfishness the groundwork...
- MANNERS the tools or expression...
- ETIQUETTE the rules of the game...

With these ingredients you will have the finished temple in the form of a charming and gracious man or woman."

D. WILL POWER

Objective:
To help the Ranger to understand the role of the will and how one develops will power.

Every human being is endowed with the power to choose. This is one of the important differences between man and the lower species - the greater flexibility to choose. You will notice however, that some people can make up their minds very easily and stick to their decisions. Others have very great difficulty and ponder the pros and cons of a particular problem and even after a great deal of thought are unable to make up their minds.

We normally think of "will power" as that energy which is released to back up a decision that has been made. Some people are referred to as having strong will power - that is, they can make a decision and once having made it, they seem to be able to have the personal resources to carry it out.

Recently a young girl had been smoking a lot; in fact she was smoking more than one pack a day. One day she was telling a friend how she wanted to make a trip at Christmas time but she did not think she could because she wouldn't have any money. Her friend said that he had an idea. Every time she went to buy a pack of cigarettes, he suggested that instead she give him the money and he would put it in a special savings account and just before Christmas he would take it out and give it to her. In this way he calculated that she would have saved enough money to pay for her fare. She listened intently to his suggestion and said she needed a couple of days to think about it. They met again four days later and her decision? No! She couldn't do it! The decision was too difficult for her to make even though in some ways it was made easy for her.

Another young man however made a decision to stop smoking one weekend and has never smoked since.

Questions for Discussion
1. Do you find it easy to make decisions?
2. Does it depend on the kind of situation you have to think and decide about?
3. Do you know other young people who find decision making easy? Difficult?

Method of Testing

2. Discuss the natural advantages of living the Adventist Christian lifestyle in accordance with Biblical principles:

1. Read the essentials of the Adventist lifestyle as contained in Ministry of Healing, page 127 – Natural Remedies (The Physician An Educator).
"Pure air, sunlight, abstemiousness, rest, exercise, proper diet, the use of water, trust in divine power - these are the true remedies."

2. One of the principle aids to good appearance is good health. The divine will for us is also "that you may. . . be in health, just as your soul prospers" (3 John 2, NKJV). Among Christians, Seventh-day Adventists are noted for their emphasis on health. One extensive study showed that they suffer only 20% as much lung cancer related to smoking, 13% as many deaths from cirrhosis of the liver, which is related to drinking, and 48.6% as many deaths from all leading causes as the general public. As a result Adventist women were found to live three years longer and Adventist men six years longer than non-Adventists. Their complete abstinence from alcohol, tobacco, and harmful drugs, their emphasis on healthful diet (vegetarian where possible), avoidance of coffee and tea, promotion of exercise, adequate rest, and trust in God, doubtless account for what has become known as "the Adventist advantage."

This advantage is available to everyone who will accept the divine invitation: "Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God" (I Cor.10:31, R.S.V.). For example, Trappist monks, who eat no meat, have about 1/5 as much heart disease as Benedictines, who eat an average diet. Research indicated that a vegetarian diet may prevent 97 percent of coronary heart attacks. The World Health Organisation estimates that up to 85 percent of all cancer is a result of poor health habits.

A diet containing less meat, saturated fat, sugar, and salt, and more fruits, vegetables, cereals, and whole grains, is the diet that promotes optimum health. This is essentially the diet Adventists have followed for over a 100 years. Most people know they should live better, but lack the inner strength to make needed changes. What better motivation could they have than the realization that their "body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. . . You are not your own; you were bought with a price. So glory God in your body" (I Cor. 6:19, 20 RSV).

The purpose of this section is to introduce the Pathfinder to the thrill of discovering God's Book of Nature and to develop a sense of accomplishment by completing nature honours.
1. Review the story of the flood and study at least three different fossils. Explain their origin and relate them to breaking God’s Laws:

This requirement could include a visit to a museum and study the fossils there.

A superb way to have a number of prospective Rangers fulfil this requirement is to have a church service turned over to the youth programme of the church, and the youth that are fulfilling the requirement could each present their view of the Flood story and its implications; they could present their fossil evidences and explain the relationship between all of this and the salvation of man. An appeal could then be made by the youth leader or the pastor.

OUTDOOR LIFE

The purpose of this section is to have the Rangers continue developing their outdoor living and safety skills.
1. Build and demonstrate the use of a reflector oven by cooking something.

Below is guidance on how to make a simple Reflector oven. To pass this requirement you will need to build reflector oven and cook/bake using it.

MAKE A REFLECTOR OVEN

With a campfire reflector oven, you can cook just about anything that you can make in a regular oven. The food will have that special smoky campfire taste.

You’ll need:
3 aluminum-foil roasting pans
a sharp nail
6 pieces of metal wire cut in 10-cm (4-in.) lengths, or 6 large twist ties with the paper or plastic removed
3 rocks
4 flat stones of equal height, pancake size
a small metal grill

1. One pan will form the back of the oven and the other two will be the sides. Use the nail to punch holes in each of the pans as shown.

2. Attach the oven back to the sides by threading the wires through the punched holes and twisting the wires together on the outside. Do not tie too tightly — you want to be able to adjust the angle of the sides to get the best heat.

3. For a small fire, position the oven around three sides of the fire, with the oven's back to the breeze. Use the three rocks to steady the side panels and back. For a large fire, set up the oven beside the hottest side of the fire.

4. Place four stones of equal height in the middle of the oven to support the grill. A cake rack makes an excellent campfire grill. Metal shelves from old refrigerators or barbecues are the perfect size and are sturdy too.

5. You can warm food in a pot or foil container placed on the grill or cook right on the grill. Turn to pages 3 and 4 for some reflector oven recipes.
Plan and cook at least 1 item on the oven you have made:

2. Participate in an overnight CAMP OUT.

You should be able to pack a rucksack, include personal gear and food sufficient for your participation.

Consider the following when packing:
- Gear list
- Something to sleep in
- Something to keep warm in
- Something to keep clean with
- Something to eat with
- Something to keep dry in
- Something to have fun in
- Miscellaneous

Date of Camp-Out: ________________________________

Event: _________________________________________
Packing a Rucksack:

The backpack or rucksack is the most suitable thing to carry your gear in. You will want one which is large enough to hold your gear, but not so large that it is difficult to carry when it is full. A well packed pack looks neat, and is evenly balanced. In good packing the rule is "last wanted first in," remembering where possible to place lighter, bulky articles at the bottom, the heavier ones at the top, and the soft ones folded neatly against your back. A top-heavy pack is easy to carry. Plastic bags make packing much easier. Spare bags can be taken for soiled clothes, damp articles, and the frying pan.

The things you might need urgently should go on the top, or in easy-to-get-at pockets. Pack something soft against your back, and distribute the load evenly through the pack so that it is comfortable on your shoulders and back.

Gear List

Gear that should be placed in a position so that it can be obtained easily if required urgently would be:

3. Pass a test in Ranger first aid.

First Aid Notes

Electrical Shock
Turn off the current if possible, but always disconnect the victim from the contact using a dry stick or coat or other non-conductive material. Do not use unprotected hands or feet. It is no use having two casualties. If the victim has stopped breathing, begin CPR and check the carotid pulse. Remember your A,B,C,D, procedure. If the victim’s heart has stopped and you have been trained in external cardiac compression, continue cardio-pulmonary resuscitation. All electrical burns are more severe than they first appear. Even if the victim recovers it is essential that they seek medical advice.

Poisoning
Poisons may be solid, liquid, or gases.

They may be:
- Taken by mouth
- Inhaled through the nose
- Absorbed through the skin, or injected.

Calmness—not panic—is the essential in the treatment of poisoning. As prevention is better than cure, make sure all poisons are correctly labelled and stored out of reach of children. Never leave poisonous substances in an open container.

General Rules for Treatment of Poisoning:
1. Protect yourself from being overcome by the poison.
2. Remove the victim from the danger source.
3. Wash off any poison from the skin.
4. Arrange for medical aid.
5. Dilute, eliminate, or neutralize the poison.
6. DO NOT. . . Give fluids if the victim is unconscious.
7. DO NOT. . . Give an emetic if the poison is a corrosive.
8. DO Give samples of the poison or vomit to the doctor.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>COMMON POISONS</th>

</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>

<tr>
<td>Bleach or Phenol</td>
<td>NO EMETIC</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alcohol, Insecticides, Match Heads, Tablets</td>
<td>GIVE AN EMETIC</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

REMEMBER: If the poison is a corrosive (Burns on way down) DO NOT GIVE AN EMETIC. If in doubt, then give plenty of milk.
EMETIC: Use Syrup of Ipecac from your first aid kit. In all cases, seek medical aid. If breathing fails, begin CPR (Mouth to Mouth).

- Wash the affected area with soap and water. Take a shower if possible.
- Discard the clothes.
- Get patient to drink plenty of water or milk.
- Induce vomiting if a chemical has been swallowed.
- If breathing stops begin CPR.
- Quickly remove the patient to fresh air.
- Indicated by abdominal pains, vomiting and diarrhoea.
- Give nothing by mouth.
- Seek medical help.

Fits
Epileptic fits are not uncommon. The victim may utter a sigh or cry, fall to the ground, remain rigid for some time, then begin thrashing around. It is possible they may froth at the mouth and become cyanosed. It is not unusual for the patient to be incontinent. Protect the victim from danger, but do not restrict movements. If the opportunity arises, place something soft between the teeth. If the patient becomes limp, place in the recovery position. Seek medical aid. Do not awaken if they fall asleep.

Convulsions
These usually occur in young children, and may be caused by a digestive upset, teething, high temperature, or constipation. The child may arch his back, twitch his limbs, roll the eyes and even become cyanosed.

Loosen the clothing, ensure a clear airway, reduce the temperature by sponging the child, and seek medical aid.

Foreign Body in Eye
Do not rub the eye. Rinse with a gentle stream of tap water into the inner corner of the eye. Eye baths should be clean. If an assistant can see the foreign body, moisten a wisp of cotton wool or the corner of a clean handkerchief and gently lift the foreign body away from the surface of the eye. If the foreign body is on the window of the eye (pupil) or stuck to the surface of the eye, or is known to be a sharp object, medical help should be sought urgently. Chemical burns - wash with water immediately and seek medical help urgently.

Foreign Body in Nose and Ears
Foreign bodies in the ear or nose should be removed by a doctor.

Fractures
Fractures can be caused by direct action (such as a blow or a fall), indirect action (where the break occurs away from the site of the direct blow) or muscular action (where the kneecap or thigh may break due to a jerk or a trip). Fractures will be recognized by pain or discomfort in the region affected, swelling, loss of power of the limb, deformity, irregularity of the bone, unnatural movement and a bony grating which the injured person may feel. The last two signs should never be sought deliberately. Fractures are classified as closed when the skin surface is not broken, open when a wound is present, and complicated when a fracture, either closed or open, is associated with an injury to a more important part of the body such as the brain, lungs, a major blood vessel or nerve, the treatment of which has priority.
If in doubt, treat injury as a fracture and unless life is endangered by fire, rising water or other hazards, DO NOT MOVE the patient before treating his injuries and immobilizing any fracture. In all cases of fracture there is a danger that further injury may be caused if a limb or part is moved before being immobilized.

Immobilizing can be achieved by supporting the injured limb or part in as natural a position as possible with bandages, slings and padding.

Fractured Collarbone (clavicle):
In the case of a fractured collarbone the patient will often support the elbow to relieve pain and incline his head towards the injured side. A common cause is falling on the outstretched hand or shoulder. A very common sports injury.
- Remove and loosen any clothing or strap on the injured side.
- Pad under the armpits and the chest wall both back and front.
- Place a broad bandage under the armpit on the right side, over the shoulder and tie at the back.
- Repeat this on the left side.
- Take a third bandage and lash the loops together tightly between the shoulder blades.
- Check to see that the circulation is normal at the pulse in both arms.

Fractured Upper Arm (Humerus):
- Apply a collar and cuff sling.
- Place soft padding between the elbow and the chest.
- Bind the limb firmly to the body first above the fracture and next below the fracture.
- Check the pulse rate at the wrist to ensure that the blood is circulating through the arm.

Fractured Forearm or Wrist:
- Apply a padded splint on the front or back of the forearm - the splint must extend from the elbow to the finger tips.
- Bind the limb firmly to the splint with three bandages, the first between the fracture and the elbow, the second between the fracture and the hand, the third supporting the hand with the splint.
- Apply an arm sling.
- Check the pulse.

Bandaging and Splints

Triangular bandage to the head:
- Fold a hem inwards along the base of the bandage.
- Place the base of the triangle on the forehead and bring the ends around the head, crossing over the apex at the rear, and meeting again at the center of the forehead.
- Tie the ends.
- Bring the apex up and fasten with a safety pin.
Open-hand Bandage:
- Fold a hem along the base of the bandage.
- Place the hand, palm down, on the bandage so that the wrist lies on the base of the triangle and the fingers point toward the apex.
- Bring the apex over the back of the hand.
- Fold the extra cloth in neatly.
- Tie the ends on the outside of the wrist.

Open-foot Bandage:
- This is similar to the open-hand bandage.
- Place the foot on the bandage so that the heel is toward the base and the toes point to the apex.
- Bring the apex up over the top of the foot.

Collar and Cuff Sling:
- Place the forearm across the chest with the fingers pointing towards the opposite shoulder.
- Pass a clove hitch over the hand and round the wrist, the knot of the clove hitch on the thumb side of the wrist, and a fold of the cuff on either side of the wrist.
- Tie the ends of the bandage in the hollow just above the collarbone on either side.
- Check the circulation.
- This sling supports the wrist.
- If the shoulder is injured also, bring the lower end of the bandage up over the forearm and under the shoulder of the injured side and tie the two ends with a knot. Thus all the weight of the injured arm will be borne by the uninjured shoulder.
- You should be able to apply a sling with the injured person lying down.
- Place one end of a triangular bandage over the shoulder of the injured side.
- Let the bandage hang down over the chest with the apex level with the elbow of the injured arm.
- Bend the elbow of the injured arm, bringing the forearm up in front of the bandage, with the hand elevated about four inches above the elbow and the tips of the fingers extending just beyond the base of the bandage.
- Bring the lower end of the bandage up over the forearm and over the shoulder of the injured side, and tie the two ends at the side of the neck.
- Bring the apex of the bandage forward and fasten with a safety pin.

Chest or Back Bandage:
- Place a triangular bandage against the chest (or back) so that the apex is at the shoulder.
- Have the patient hold the apex there.
- Now fold the base inward as far up as you desire.
- Carry the ends around the body and tie directly below the shoulder. You will always have one protruding long end after you tie.
- Take this end and bring it up to the shoulder, tying it and the apex of the bandage together.
Splint to the Forearm:
- Don’t twist or turn the arm to see whether it is broken.
- It is best to use two splints. One should extend from the elbow to the fingers on the palm side, and the other should be placed on the opposite side.
- Fold several triangular bandages into cravat shape and use them to bind the splints snugly in place. Three or four are usually best, though two will do well.
- If material is available, the splints should be padded before being used.
- After the splint is applied, put on an arm sling to support the arm.

!Splint to the Forearm

Splint to the Palm or Wrist:
- In case of a palm or wrist injury, one splint is sufficient. It should be padded and should extend from the elbow to the finger tips.
- Place it on the palm side and bandage securely in place.
- Then put on an arm sling.

Method of Testing
The instructor will give the examination.

Ranger first aid does NOT complete the First Aid Honour, nor is the certificate awarded.

If one chooses to complete the current St. John or Red Cross First Aid Certificate, then this will meet the requirements for Ranger, Voyager and Guide.
LIFESTYLE ENRICHMENT
1. Complete one honour not previously earned in Outreach Ministry, Vocational, or Outdoor Industries.
